

FOR RELEASE:
August 31, 2011

CONTACT:
Dan Reynolds
Director of Communications
(734) 780-2609
Fax: (734) 780-2142
dan@michiganeyebank.org

Ready, aim, fire! Michigan Eye-Bank asks shooters to set sights on vision

ANN ARBOR – Calling all sportsmen and women! The Michigan Eye-Bank is seeking participants for its first “Sighting in on Vision” clay target shooting fundraiser, which will take place at the Grand Blanc Huntsman’s Club in Grand Blanc on October 1.

Registration for the event, which will run from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., is $70, and includes a full day of clay target shooting, ammunition, hearing protection, food, beverages and awards. Attendees can also meet Honorary Event Chair Bob Garner, former host of Michigan Out-of-Doors.

“Since we met him last year, Bob has been an excellent source of support,” says Alison Wright, the Eye-Bank’s Community Engagement Manager. “Not only has he worked with us on a PSA that can currently be seen on WCMU Public Broadcasting, but he has also been passionately promoting the Michigan Organ Donor Registry. Asking for his help with this event seemed like a natural fit.”

For more information or to register, visit www.michiganeyebank.org.

The Michigan Eye-Bank is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to the restoration of sight. It recovers, evaluates and distributes human eye tissue for transplantation. It also supports research into the causes and cures of blinding eye conditions, promotes donation awareness through public and professional education, and provides humanitarian aid to people in need of corneal transplantation throughout the world. For more information, visit the Michigan Eye-Bank online at www.michiganeyebank.org or call (800) 247-7250.

